

Dear Dreamer,

I call you Dreamer because I know everyone dreams. Research scientists, whether or not they believe in me, affirm that you dream every night. I can't believe (and belief and faith are my specialties) you don't value your dreams in the 21st century!

In dreams throughout the Old Testament I spoke to Abraham, I spoke to Isaac, I spoke to Jacob, I spoke to Joseph, I spoke to hundreds of my prophets. Through them I brought my people encouragement, instruction, ideas, warnings, guidance, counsel, wisdom, you name it.

These people never doubted it was my Word coming to them visually during the night hours. They accepted my Word and acted on it, as well they should.

Same thing in the New Testament. Joseph, Mary, Paul – even the wife of that rascal, Pompous Pilate – heard from me in dreams. I have continually been communicating with my creation through dreams and visions. Always did. Still do.

Now what is going on in my world in this era that people in the Church are ignoring their dreams that I am bringing them every night? In the near future I want to hear your side of this; why do you reject this awesome means to hear from me while you sleep?

Tell you what; I'm going to redouble my efforts. Expect more dreams, more vivid dreams, ones you'll remember. I'll make sure the Holy Spirit is right there with you to help you understand the bizarre images I prefer to send to help get you out of your ordinary thinking.

Consider yourself forewarned.

In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days. – Acts 2:17

Lovingly,

Your Heavenly Father
